About the Brewery Resource Roadshow

The BRR is an initiative involving 9 hosts for a free day packed full of innovation, learning and great networking. It takes place twice a year, February and September.

Appointments

This is your opportunity to arrange one to one face time with the suppliers. You can have uninterrupted conversations and discuss commercial agreements with privacy that you don't get at the supplier trade stand.

The Wellhopped World Series

Phase 3 of the Charles Faram Wellhopped World Series 2019. The beer competition.
